Amendment of Rule 6 of the Company's Constitution

If the Special Resolution is passed, Rule 6 will read as follows:

Except with the consent of shareholders in a general meeting or with the prior written consent of any shareholder who holds more than 50% of the issued fully paid ordinary shares in the Company, the Company must not:

- (a) except as contemplated by paragraph (b), whether in one transaction or a series of related transactions, in any twelve month period, issue or agree to issue Securities that on completion of the transaction or series of related transactions would increase the aggregate number of Securities on issue by 10% or more; or
- (b) issue or agree to issue Securities to employees (or their nominees, spouses or associates under an employee share plan or option plan or similar incentive arrangement (Employee Plans), if immediately following any such issue the aggregate number of all Securities issued under those Employee Plans to current employees would be greater than 15% of Securities on issue. For the avoidance of doubt, this rule does not prevent the Company from satisfying employee incentive payments through the purchase of Securities rather than the issue of Securities.
