

Pendal's Responsible Investing journey

Commitment to RI has a long and proud heritage

Pendal Group was originally established in 1969 as Ord-BT and became fully owned by Bankers Trust Company (New York) in 1978 before being acquired by Principal Financial Group in 1999, and then by Westpac Banking Corporation in 2002. Up until May 2018 Pendal Group was known as BT Investment Management (BTIM), established in 2007 when listed on the ASX as a specialist investment manager.

1 This fund was launched when Pendal was part of the BT Financial Group. Pendal Fund Services Limited (previously known as BT Investment Management (Fund Services) Limited) became the responsible entity of this fund in 2007.
2 Formerly known as the BT Sustainable Conservative Fund.

3 Formerly known as the BT Ethical Share Fund.
4 Formerly known as the BT Sustainable Australian Share Fund.
5 Formerly known as the BT Sustainable Australian Fixed Interest Fund, BT Sustainable International Share Fund and the BT Sustainable International Fixed Interest Fund.

6 PRI signatory when Pendal was part of the BT Financial Group.
7 Formerly known as the BT Sustainable Balanced Fund.
8 RIAA membership commenced when Pendal was part of the BT Financial Group.
9 Founding Member of the IGCC when Pendal was part of the BT Financial Group.