BT Wholesale MidCap Fund (APIR code BTA0313AU, ARSN 130 466 581)

Notice of change of BT Wholesale MidCap Fund's benchmark name

The benchmark for the BT Wholesale MidCap Fund (Fund) has changed its name from BT MidCap Customised Index to S&P/ASX 150 ex 50 Accumulation Index.

Why is the benchmark name changing?

The name of the benchmark has been changed following the appointment of Standard & Poor's (S&P) as the service provider that calculates and provides data relating to the BT MidCap Customised Index.

What does this mean for investors?

There is no change to the Fund's benchmark apart from the change of name.

The Fund's performance history against its benchmark will remain the same.
